

CARTMEL CE PRIMARY SCHOOL

Newsletter 3rd February 2017

It has been a somewhat tricky week this week in school, with the news on Monday morning that Mrs Rawcliffe and Tom had been involved in a car accident locally. I am pleased to say that they are at home and recovering but are obviously shaken and bruised. I know you will join me in sending our good wishes for a speedy recovery to them both.

The new school dinners also started this week and they seem to be going down well. The Chinese banquet provided on Monday was delicious and the children were brilliant in trying new tastes. I hope that you have had positive feedback at home too.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend,

Mrs Battersby

GYM Competition

On Wednesday 15th February it's the cluster GYM competition at Cartmel Priory School. Children who have been selected will need to have their leotard, and either footless tights or leggings with them to wear under the leotard. Leggings/tights must be black, white, blue, grey or skin coloured and with no patterns on just plain. Children must also have a water bottle with them. The competition starts at 1 o'clock and finishes around 3 o'clock.

Sponsored Bounce

We are holding a sponsored bounce on Friday 17th February. Please try and get as many sponsors as you can as the money raised is to help fund the Tatton Park trip. It's a great event that the children enjoy doing, and is a great way to finish of the term with.
