

Archdeacon Ross visited school on Monday to share in our worship. It was great to welcome him to school and our Ethos group chatted with him enthusiastically and answered his questions.
The greenhouse has been delivered and will be installed on Wednesday next week.

Best Wishes

Next lesson 20th March

Assessment Week

Next week is assessment week for the children. No need to worry, just get plenty of sleep over the weekend and remember to have breakfast before school.

Kwick Sticks Hockey Competition

Well done to all the children who took part in the hockey tournament this week. The team came joint second. Congratulations.

School Finances

As we are coming to the end of the financial year we would be grateful if you could log on the school money and clear any outstanding balances.

Sports Relief

Don't forget Sports Relief next week.

There is an activity planned for each morning break time ending with the sponsored walk on Friday. Please can children have a pair of trainers in school all week and weather appropriate clothing. Children are welcome to wear a football shirt or any other sporty shirt on Monday, with the rest of their uniform

Completed sponsorship forms and money should be brought into school during the week commencing March 26th.
