

What a busy and exhausting week! I would like to thank all involved in our recent SIAMS (Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools) Inspection on Thursday. It was a busy and exhausting day but all the children did us proud in their involvement. They all behaved impeccably and really showed our Christian Values in action around the school. I will, of course, share the report with you once we have it.

I have decided, on the back of a very hectic week and with it being a bank holiday Monday, that the children will not be given homework this weekend. They have worked so very hard throughout the week and I think that the longer weekend is an opportunity for some family time together. So, relax, enjoy and refresh...I know I need to!

Best wishes,
Mrs Battersby
